LEO BURNETT COMPANY, Inc.

Ad No. 175—Req. No. 49894—1 col. (2¼ in.) x 10 in.—B&W—Time (N.Y. Metro), 1967 (A)

Printed in U.S.A.

The Gauloises 2-minute French Quiz #1

(Answers upside down at bottom of page)

1. Gauloises (pronounced "Goal-waz") won fame as:

a. A dancer at the Folies Bergère
b. Builder of the Eiffel tower
c. France's favorite cigarette

2. In France, Gauloises are enjoyed by:

a. Goateed French diplomats
b. Inscrutable Japanese diplomats
c. Roving-eyed Italian diplomats

3. In France, you would expect to say "Gauloises" to:

a. A tobacconist
b. A gendarme
c. A man who just sneezed

Answers

1. c—Three out of five French smokers insist on Gauloises.

2. a, b, c—In France, enjoying Gauloises is just the diplomatic thing to do.

3. a—But if there's no tobacconist handy, you could try to filch one from a gendarme who has just sneezed. After all, they are France's favorite cigarette.

(Quiz #2 was in a past issue.)

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/[illegible]

2061193600